

PUBLIC NOTICE

Following the announcement by the Minister of Health on the 18th March, 2020 that Zambia had recorded cases of Covid 19, the Hon. Chief Justice directed a number of precautionary measures for all the Courts in the Judiciary in order to mitigate the potential spread of the corona virus through the Courts.

This is to inform the General Public that the said measures prescribed by the Hon. Chief Justice will continue in force until further notice. The measures will be reviewed depending on guidelines from the Ministry of Health or as maybe directed by the Hon. Chief Justice depending on the circumstances.

Arrangements with regard to Courts attending to urgent matters will continue as earlier prescribed. You can find the Judiciary Covid-19 Precautionary measures on
