CASES REFERRED TO:

- 1. Pounds V. Pounds (1994) 1 F.L.R. 775

JACOB EKUBANI MATINDO (the Petitioner) filed this Petition for dissolution of marriage on 9th August, 2023 seeking to dissolve his marriage to CLEOPATRA MAUNDU MACHILA MATINDO (the Respondent).

The Petition was brought pursuant to Section 8 and Section 9(1)(d) of the Matrimonial Causes Act No. 20 of 2007.

The Petition reveals that the Petitioner was married to the Respondent on 30th November, 2019 at Roma Parish of the Assumption Catholic Church, in the City and Province of Lusaka of the Republic of Zambia; that both parties are domiciled in Zambia; that immediately after the marriage the Petitioner and the Respondent lived together as husband and wife at an unknown house number in Lusaka West, Lusaka aforesaid; that the Petitioner is a Farm Manager at Anderson Farms in Mkushi District and resides at House No. 6467 Chainama Road, Olympia Extension, Lusaka while the Respondent is a Social Welfare Officer at Ministry of Community Development and resides at an unknown house number in Lusaka.

The Petition also reveals that there are or have been no previous proceedings in Zambia or elsewhere with reference to the same marriage or between the Petitioner and the Respondent with reference to any property of either or both of them; there are no proceedings continuing in any country outside Zambia which are in respect of the marriage capable of affecting its validity or subsistence.

The Petitioner alleges the irretrievable breakdown of the marriage on the ground that the parties have since 25th November, 2020 lived apart for a continuous period of at least two (2) years immediately preceding the presentation of the Petition and that the Respondent consents to a Decree Nisi being granted.

The Petitioner prays for the following:

- i. That the marriage be dissolved.
- ii. That each party maintains themselves.
- iii. That each party bears their own legal costs.

The Respondent filed Consent to Dissolution of Marriage on 9th August, 2023. She confirmed that the marriage with the Petitioner has broken down irretrievably and she has lived apart from the Petitioner for a continuous period in excess of two (2) years preceding the presentation of the Petition herein and she consents to the dissolution of the marriage with the Petitioner.

There was an acknowledgement of service filed by the Respondent on 11th August, 2023 where she indicated that she did not intend to contest the Petition.

I find that the Petitioner has sufficiently proved the contents of his Petition and is entitled to a Decree Nisi particularly that the Respondent is not contesting the divorce. I will deal with the Petition in the way that Petitions in the Special Procedure List are dealt with.

The Special Procedure was introduced in 1973 in England and Wales for undefended divorces based on the fact of two years' separation plus consent, although only where the couple did not have children.

This procedure allowed a divorce to be granted on the basis of Affidavit evidence alone. In 1977 it was extended to all undefended divorces, and the "Special Procedure" became the norm-see the Family Proceedings Rules 1991 (Statutory Instrument 1991/1247) Rule 2. 36. The Procedure was summarized by Waite L.J in the case of POUNDS V POUNDS (1).

Whilst the English Family Proceedings Rules 1991 do not apply to Zambia, I am of the firm view that undefended divorces based on the fact of two years' separation plus consent should be dealt with using the Special Procedure i.e on the basis of Affidavit evidence alone without the need for the parties to attend Court for their case to be heard. I am of the considered view that the Court is empowered to determine such a divorce on the documents before it pursuant to Order 30 Rule 6A of the High Court Rules, Chapter 27 of the Laws of Zambia as amended by the High Court (Amendment) Rules 2020. Rule 6 A of Order 30 provides as follows:

- “6A. (1) Where the Court is satisfied that the application can be disposed of on the basis of the documents before it, the Court may determine the matter without the attendance of the parties or their advocates and shall issue a notice of the date of delivery.
- (2) This Rule shall apply to –
- (a) An interlocutory application;
  - (b) An application under 11(a);
  - (c) An application for determination on questions of law or construction of documents; or
  - (d) Any other application as may be directed by the Court.”

I have considered the evidence of the Petitioner and noted that the Respondent has given her consent to dissolution of the marriage.

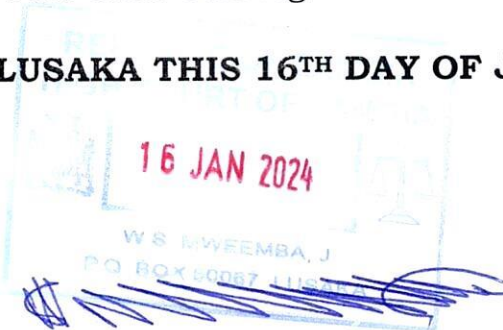

I am satisfied that the marriage solemnized between JACOB EKUBANI MATINDO and CLEOPATRA MAUNDU MACHILA MATINDO on 30th November, 2019 at Roma Parish of the Assumption Catholic Church in the City and Province of Lusaka of the Republic of Zambia has broken down irretrievably in terms of Section 8 and Section 9(1)(d) of the Matrimonial Causes Act No. 20 of 2007 of the Laws of Zambia. I am further satisfied that granting a Decree Nisi will not cause grave financial or other hardship to the Respondent.

I therefore hereby invoke the provisions of Section 41 of the Matrimonial Causes Act, No. 20 of 2007 and grant the Decree Nisi and I make the following Orders.

1. The Decree Nisi shall become Absolute Six (6) weeks from the date hereof unless cause be shown why the same cannot be made Absolute.
2. There is no order for maintenance.
3. Each party is to bear their own legal costs of this action.

DELIVERED AT LUSAKA THIS 16TH DAY OF JANUARY, 2024.
